

Spellings

For this half term, your child's spellings are to practise writing their name to ensure consistency and fluency in their letter formation within this task. This may be subject to change depending on their progression with writing their name.