

What are we remembering on Remembrance Day?

Today we will be...

Thinking about who we remember on Remembrance Day.

What is this picture showing?

After World War 1, most towns put up war memorials to remember soldiers from that town who had lost their lives in battle. Lots of memorials then also added the names of the soldiers who died in World War 2 when this war ended in 1945.

Do we have a war memorial in our town or a town nearby?

Where is it?

Have a look at some other examples of war memorials on the next slides. As you look at them, think about these questions...

What can we find out from these memorials?

Do you think these memorials are important?
Why or why not?
