

Who might you choose to join your team to change
the world?

Some ideas...

David Attenborough

David Attenborough is very inspiring. He educates us all on animals of the world. He encourages us to look after our planet and respecting all creatures on Earth.

Marcus Rashford

Marcus Rashford is a footballer who plays for Manchester is on the England Team. He is very inspiring as last year he campaigned for children to have free school meals in the holidays.

Little Mix

Little Mix are a girl Pop group. They are good singers, happy and kind!

Super Man/Wonder Woman

Super Man and Wonder Woman are super heroes! They are strong, have magic powers and fight for doing the right thing!

Ant and Dec

Ant and Dec are TV presenters.
They are very funny!

Sir Captain Tom Moore

Sir Tom Moore is a very kind man who raised lots of money for the NHS. The NHS is what keeps us all safe and is the reason we can go to the doctors when we are not feeling very well. He raised the money by doing 100 laps in his garden which is a lot when you are 100 years old!

Queen Elizabeth ii

This is our Queen. The Queen has lots of important jobs like consenting to decisions made in parliament about the country. Without the Queens agreement, these decisions cannot go ahead. The Queen and royal family attract tourists from all over the world, bringing lots of money into the country. Some countries do not have a royal family.

Boris Johnson

This is Boris Johnson. He is the current prime minister of our country. He has a very important job. Boris makes lots of important decisions everyday which impact all of us.

Your adult/Mum/Dad/Auntie/Uncle/Granddad/Grandma

Our adults do so much for us! They cook for us, they do our home learning with us, they cuddle us when we are sad, they keep us safe, they make us laugh, they do lots of kind things for us!

Maybe you know of other people who are not on this list, I would love to hear all of your ideas...
