Dear diary

Today has been amazing! I went to the North pole. Well I think I have been to the North Pole or it might have been a dream.

It all began when I was eating my delicious arctic role pudding. I closed my eyes and I went to the North pole. It was very cold. The snow was heavy and it was windy, I could hardly see infront of me, until I seen a boy on sledge pulled by dogs. I was frightened at first but then he smiled so much and offered to be my guide. I was so happy to have found a friend there. We got onto his sledge and went quickly through the snow. It was amazing! I could hardly feel my face it was so cold.

Then we saw amazing animals I could only dream of seeing so close. A fluffy arctic hair and a huge polar bear.

Next I saw the most beautiful sight I had ever seen. The sky was filled with bright colours everywhere. It was Fantastic. They are called the northern lights.

All of a sudden I woke up. I thought I must have been dreaming, but then I found snow on my shoes and a small sledge in my pocket. Do you think I went to the North Pole Diary?

I have had the best day! I hope I can go back and visit soon. I will write again soon.
