Who was Ted Harrison?

Ted was born in England. He moved to northern Canada in the arctic circle. His famous paintings were of his surroundings in Yukon Canada.

Ted moved to Yukon in Canada which is in the arctic circle. We are learning about the arctic this half term. The arctic has very beautiful scenery.

Ted painted beautiful pictures of the landscape in Yukon Canada. Here are some pictures of Yukon.

What do you notice? Is there anything similar or different from Hedden on the wall?

The next slides are pictures of Ted’s art. How does the art make you feel? What colours can you see? Does his paintings look realistic? Ted wanted his pictures to bring joy. He said “We should all try to spread happiness where ever we may be”. Does his art make you happy?
